Junior Museum & Zoo Renovation Project Community Meeting

The Palo Alto Junior Museum and Zoo is looking for your input on our renovation project! The community is invited to review the scope and schedule of the renovation project and provide feedback. If you would like to participate, please come to the meeting on January 14, 2015, from 6pm-8pm, at the Junior Museum and Zoo.

Children's Fine Art Opening Celebration

Join the Palo Alto Art Center in celebrating our annual Children's Fine Art Exhibition on January 13, from 3:30pm-6pm in the Children's Wing of the Art Center! View artwork from children and teens enrolled in Fall 2014 classes, learn about exciting classes we're offering for the Winter 2015 quarter, and meet and make art with our wonderful instructors. The event is free and light refreshments will be served.

Hear This! Exhibition to Explore the Power of Sound

What is the sound of art? The Palo Alto Art Center will attempt to answer that provocative question through its upcoming exhibition, Hear This!, January 17-April 12. Hear This! will present works by five contemporary artists who employ the power of sound in artworks that explore perception, the passage of time, and nostalgia. This unique exhibition will be both surprising and fun - mark your calendars now!

Champagne Brunch Welcomed in the New Year!

The 30th Annual Senior New Year's Eve Champagne Brunch at the Cubberley Community Center Pavilion welcomed in 2015 in style! Party goers enjoyed a light brunch, with a New Year's countdown and champagne toast at noon! Over 150 people attended the party and danced to live music from the 10th Avenue Band. This event was sponsored by the Palo Alto Recreation Foundation, Avenidas and La Comida.
