HIGHLIGHTS THIS WEEK

Youth Art Exhibitions

The vitality of youth comes alive during our annual Youth Art and Cultural Kaleidoscope exhibitions May 2 - 31. Cultural Kaleidoscope is a unique artists-in-the-schools program that links the neighboring and diverse communities of Palo Alto, East Palo Alto and Menlo Park, building bridges through the arts. Youth Art showcases artwork created by students from kindergarten through high school within the Palo Alto Unified School District. The Youth Art exhibition closes May 24.

Join us for the opening celebration of both exhibitions at the Palo Alto Art Center on Wednesday, May 6, from 4:30pm-7pm, with opening remarks at 6pm. Mark your calendar now!

New Pool Hours

Starting May 9, Rinconada Pool will begin new family recreational swim hours. The pool will be open Saturdays and Sundays from 12:15pm to 4:45pm and closed Monday through Friday.

Are you a frequent swimmer? Skip the lines and pay less by buying swims in packs of 10 through your EnjoyOnline account. To get started, set up your account at enjoyonline.cityofpaloalto.org.

Baby Sign Language Workshop

Stop guessing what your baby is trying to tell you and start spending more time fulfilling your child's specific needs. Baby Sign Language gives parents the opportunity to communicate with children long before babies can verbalize their wants and needs. Workshops are available on May 18 and June 17, 11:00am-12:30pm at the Lucie Stern Community Center.

Kids Explore at Bay Camp

Space is still available in summer camp sessions for Bay Camp starting June 15 for kindergarteners through 4th graders. Come spend a week discovering our very own Salt Marsh!! You will be a fisherman and a scientist, traverse Byxbee Park, and paddle the Baylands sloughs in canoes for a closer look at the plants and birds. Games and arts & crafts activities will complement our themes.
