HIGHLIGHTS THIS WEEK

Elephant & Piggie's We are in a Play

Palo Alto Children's Theatre presents ELEPHANT & PIGGIE'S WE ARE IN A PLAY. Based on the classic stories by Mo Willems and featuring a cast of local theatre professionals, Elephant and Piggie, with the help of the nutty backup singers, The Squirrels, take the audience on a madcap musical romp about friendship! Running time: approximately 60 minutes. Performances run from January 28 to February 14 .

Pop-Up Card Craft

Would you like to make some unique Valentine's Day cards for your favorite people? Come to the Midtown Room at Mitchell Park Library on Sunday, January 31, from 2pm-3:30pm and learn how to make pop-up cards for Valentine's Day. This is a fun, free activity for the whole family!

Prioritization Challenge

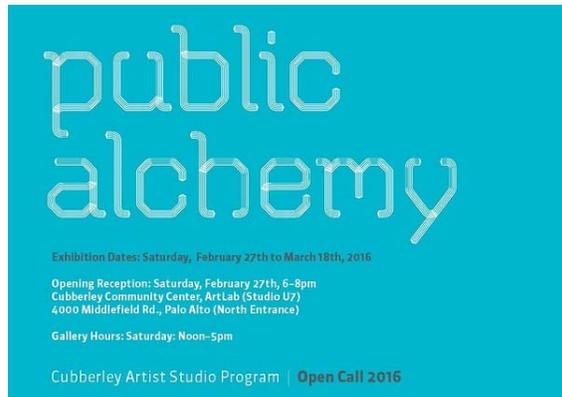

We need your help in charting the future of our parks, facilities and recreation program. Please take our survey around prioritization for the Palo Alto Parks Master Plan, and help guide our future renovations and capital improvement needs for parks, trails, open space and recreation facilities.

Seeking New Teen Programs

Do you teach popular and unique teen programs? We are researching new teen programs and would love to hear from instructors! Our goal for our teen programs is to help teens break down barriers, develop leaders, and affect the Palo Alto teen community in a positive way.

If interested, email amal.aziz@cityofpaloalto.org

Public Alchemy

Cubberley Artist Studio Program invites local artists to submit work for their inaugural 2016 entry-free, open exhibition, Public Alchemy. This exhibition is non-juried and all forms and media are encouraged and will be exhibited, as space allows. Drop off dates of artwork are on Feb. 19th and 20th.
