HIGHLIGHTS THIS WEEK

Master Plan Prioritization

The City of Palo Alto has been working on a Parks, Trails, Open Space and Recreation Master Plan. Please help us prioritize improvements and investments over the next twenty years. Each participant in the survey gets $25 of virtual funding for parks, trails, open space and recreation. Where will you invest your money to help make our community better for you and the next generation of Palo Altans?

To take the survey, or for more information, visit <http://www.paloaltoparksplan.org>

Monthly Sewing Clinic

The Cubberley Artist Studio Program offers a free monthly Sewing Clinic with artist Jennifer Gonsalves. Come join us on Monday, September 7, from 5pm-9pm in studio U-1 at the Cubberley Community Center. This is a great opportunity to work on your art or sewing project!

For more information, visit www.cityofpaloalto.org/casp

Art Center Open House

Tour the Art Center during our Children's Fine Art (CFA) and Adult Studios Open House and learn about our fall classes for children, teens and adults on September 10 from 5pm-7pm. See sample projects, ask questions, and register for classes with our helpful visitor services staff.

For more information, call 650-329-2366 or email artcenter@cityofpaloalto.org

Shape the Future of Public Art

Share your vision and creative ideas for the Public Art Master Plan! Consultants Barbara Goldstein and Gail Goldman are working with Palo Alto communities to formulate a proactive vision for the future of public art in our city for the next 5-10 years. Come to the Community Outreach Meeting held at the Downtown Library (270 Forest Ave, Palo Alto CA) on Thursday, September 10, from 5:30pm-7:30pm. We want to hear your voice!

To RSVP for this event, visit the Public Art Program Facebook Page

What's the Big Idea?

Artists Peter Foucault and Chris Treggiari (Mobile Arts Platform) are engaging residents in a creative and fun way and gathering their thoughts on how artists might make Palo Alto a more vibrant or livable city. During September and October, M.A.P. artists will travel across Palo Alto on two custom-built bicycle trailers and set up pop-up mobile art making and idea generating spaces in multiple locations. Don't miss this exciting opportunity to share your vision and creative ideas! Visit the Public Art Program Facebook page and website to find out the full list of locations and dates.

Chicago

Come see CHICAGO at the Lucie Stern Theatre September 12-27, 2015, with a paid preview on September 11. CHICAGO is a brilliant musical satire that dives headfirst into America's voyeuristic obsession with scandals and celebrity. Winner of six (6) Tony Awards, CHICAGO brings you music, dance numbers - and all that jazz!

Community Health Fair

The City of Palo Alto is happy to host the 2015 Palo Alto Community Health Fair! This free event takes place on September 26 from 10am-3pm at the Mitchell Park Community Center. Come listen to expert Stanford physicians discuss topics like juvenile diabetes, achy joints in children, and nutrition. Ask questions during Q&A sessions and talk privately with physicians during one-on-one sessions. Participate in hands on art activities, exercise demonstrations, and Make-X Maker Space workshops. Listen to Mayor Karen Holman talk about health in our city. Attend the non-profit open house and learn about local health services offered throughout the community. There will be something for everyone in the family!

Hitched! Bridal Fair

If wedding bells are ringing in your future, please mark your calendar for the free Hitched! Bridal Fair coming to the Lucie Stern Community Center on September 27. Enjoy some of the best vendors the bay area has to offer, as well as some fun do-it-yourself projects.

The first 100 attendees will receive a gift bag and giveaways, so be sure to arrive early! RSVP on our Facebook Page.

For more information, call 650-463-4900 or visit cityofpaloalto.org/hitched
