HIGHLIGHTS THIS WEEK

Ghost Hanger, 2012 by Barbara Boissevain.

Art and Environment Community Dialog

Join us from 6:30pm-8pm on September 15 at the Cubberley Community Center, Room H-1, for a discussion on how art and the environment are intertwined. Cubberley resident artist and environmentalist Barbara Boissevain will host an artist talk: Art and Environment Community in Dialogue. We will discuss several environmental issues relevant to Bay Area residents and how art can serve as a catalyst for provoking discourse about environmental stewardship. This is a free event.

Survivor Science for Older Kids

Special science classes for 4th and 5th graders are offered Thursday afternoons at the Palo Alto Junior Museum and Zoo. Check out three weeks of Survivor Science starting this Thursday, September 17th at 3:30pm. A few spaces are still open. Your older kid will learn about basic survival skills including tying knots, finding cover and clean water, and way finding. Build a Cherokee-inspired shelter in the JMZ's outdoor science yard. Registration is required.

To register, call 650-350-2111 or visit www.cityofpaloaalto.org/enjoy

Landscape Workshop

Are you thinking about how to keep your garden thriving while reducing water usage? Come to the Maintaining Existing Landscape Design During a Drought workshop on September 17 from 7pm-9pm Ballroom in the Lucie Stern Community Center. Learn about irrigation system maintenance, water schedules, soil amendment and mulching. Discover water-efficient irrigation alternatives such as drip irrigation and graywater reuse. This is a free event, but pre-registration is required.

Register online or call 650-329-2241

Friday Night at the Art Center

Join us on September 18 from 7pm-10pm for another fun-filled Friday Night at the Art Center as we celebrate the opening of our fall exhibition, Front Yard/Backstreet. Front Yard/Backstreet explores the connections between people and their communities. Don't miss this popular community event, which will include live music, interactive activities presented by the Mobile Arts Platform, hands-on artmaking, a special artist performance, local food trucks, and a cash bar featuring a specialty cocktail.

Snow White

Come to Palo Alto Children's Theatre on September 19-20 for Snow White in the Playhouse. This is a very special, audience-interactive experience designed for you and your children, ages 2 to 6, where local high school performers bring beloved fairy tales to life on the Magic Castle stage. Running time: Approximately 45 minutes. Performances are Saturdays at 10am and noon, and Sundays at noon.
