HIGHLIGHTS THIS WEEK

Summer Camp & Aquatics Registration Fair and Camp Concierge

Trying to figure out your child's schedule for this summer? With so many options available, this task can be very overwhelming. Join us at the Mitchell Park Community Center on Saturday, February 20, from 11am-1pm for the Summer Camp & Aquatics Registration Fair and Camp Concierge! We will have hands-on activities for kids, arts and crafts, a magic show, teen center activities, food trucks and more.

For more information, please call 650-463-4900

Public Alchemy

Cubberley Artist Studio Program invites local artists to submit work for their inaugural 2016 entry-free, open exhibition, Public Alchemy. This exhibition is non-juried and all forms and media are encouraged and will be exhibited, as space allows. Drop off dates of artwork are on Feb. 19th and 20th.

For the full call and application details, please visit cityofpaloalto.org/casp

The Ugly Duckling

Join Palo Alto Children's Theatre on February 20-21 for THE UGLY DUCKLING in the Playhouse, a very special, audience-interactive experience designed for you and your children, ages 2 to 6. Performances are on Saturday at 10am and noon, and Sunday at noon, and run for about 45 minutes.

Purchase tickets at 650-463-4970 or online at www.cityofpaloalto.org/childrenstheatre

Visit Creative Ecology Artist

Meet with Creative Ecology artist David Tomb at the Art Center on February 20, from noon-4pm, as he creates a new diorama of birds, grasses and marsh using a wide range of materials. You can also talk to David and learn about his process during this portion of his residency. Feel like creating some artwork of your own? Mounted birds from the Palo Alto Junior Museum & Zoo will be on display to provide inspiration for drawing.

Teens, are you looking for volunteer opportunities? clickPA, the one-stop site for teen events, is hosting a Volunteer Meeting on February 21 at 12pm at the Mitchell Park Community Center in the Adobe Room. Come learn how you can earn community service hours by finding local teen events and writing reviews from home!
