RESOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PALO ALTO
EXPRESSING APPRECIATION TO GLENN ROBERTS
UPON HIS RETIREMENT

WHEREAS, Glenn Roberts served the residents of Palo Alto as Director Public Works from April 19, 1993 to December 30, 2010; and

WHEREAS, Glenn Roberts directed oversight to an annual budget of approximately $100M in the General Fund, Capital Improvement Fund, three enterprise funds and one internal service fund; and

WHEREAS, Glenn Roberts directed the development of a new system of parking structures, districts and transportation improvements during his tenure with the City; and

WHEREAS, Glenn Roberts directed efforts to secure property owner approval of a Storm Drainage Fee to fund critical capital projects that alleviate flooding and programs that protect storm water quality and the health of our local creeks; and

WHEREAS, Glenn Roberts oversaw improvements to the City's winter storm preparedness and response capabilities; and

WHEREAS, Glenn Roberts led the staff responsible for the growth of the City's water pollution prevention and zero waste programs as they became examples to other public agencies; and

WHEREAS, Glenn Roberts oversaw the design and construction of improvements to many of the City's major buildings; and

WHEREAS, Glenn Roberts, in his 18 years of service with the City of Palo Alto, has directed the operations, maintenance, repair, rehabilitation, and capital improvement of over 1.5M square feet of City facilities, 470 lane miles of City streets, 6.6M square feet of sidewalk, 35,000 trees, processing of 8M gallons of sewage and 49M tons of solid waste annually and a fleet of over 600 vehicles and equipment.

NOW, THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Palo Alto hereby recognizes Glenn Roberts for the public service and contributions rendered during his 18 years of employment with the City.
