Baylands Comprehensive Conservation Plan (BCCP)	Moss McDougall Reckdahl	Daren Anderson	On June 5th, a ribbon-cutting ceremony was held for the recently-completed Sludge Dewatering and Truck Loadout Facility at our Regional Water Quality Control Plant to turn on a new dewatering process instead of the 50 year old energy-intensive incineration plant. Reviewed the proposed CPA Regional Water Quality Control Plant Horizontal Levee Pilot Project, the Valley Water Palo Alto Tide Gate Replacement Project, penned a response to staff about the proposed homeless RV parking project at Los Altos Treatment Plant. and the latest draft of the very comprehensive Baylands Comprehensive Conservation Plan. Brought to staff's attention a new road at the LATP all the way to the entrance to the open space preserve. Walked the proposed Baylands Tree Plan area near the new Mercedes dealership on the old Ming's property. Discussed the algae bloom and the growing bird population on Renzel pond and access around it. Discussed the defacement of "every" sign and bench at Byxbee. Preparing for Aug 14th MidPen Board meeting on Palo Alto-to-the-Sea, but also East Palo Alto plans for SF Bay Trail and Dumbarton Rail Corridor.

Cubberley Master Plan	Moss McDougall Greenfield	Kristen O'Kane	Lots of discussion and public comment at June Council meetings and in the press following the fourth and last Cubberley design meeting in May, regarding the addition of housing to the plan at this late a date. It was later explained that council gave the public and the subcommittee a year to take their best shot at what they need in a new community center, and then entertained senior housing on top of that. Discussions continue at the Council level regarding that and other locations for housing nearby.
Foothills Park	Greenfield LaMere McCauley	Daren Anderson	The Ad Hoc met multiple times with staff to prepare the FHP Access discussion report, with further online review and discussion. The Ad Hoc also met with staff to discuss Foothills Park "7.7 acres" improvements which we look forward to discussing at an upcoming PRC meeting. Separate from the Ad Hoc, Commissioner Moss is preparing for an Aug 14th MidPen Board meeting on Palo Alto-to-the-Sea hike thru Arastradero and Foothills.
