Digital painting by Jeremy Sutton

The City of Palo Alto is wishing you a joyful holiday season. Our administrative offices will be closed from December 24-January 1, with the exception of the departments noted here.

Take time out to pause and enjoy some of the seasonal events that happen only this special time of year. If you missed our annual tree lighting, you can still stroll by to see the tree on display in Lytton Plaza. This year we invited artist Jeremy Sutton to create a live digital painting of the tree lighting event. He used an iPad and displayed it on a large LED screen so everyone could see his work of digital art come to life in real-time. Enjoy this time lapse video that captured some of the magic of the evening and look for your next edition of All Things Palo Alto in 2020.
