

Suggestion: Why don't you give out field guides that tell you what plants are on what specific trails? It'd spark my interest.

That is a very good suggestion, we have most of the information needed already; although, it is not in that format.

I will work on putting together "trail guides" and get them out in the future.

11/23/2007 Note: The first trail guide is available in the Foothills Park Interpretive Center Lobby. It has been designed as a "treasure hunt" to make finding items more entertaining. Lists for other trails will be appearing in coming months.
