

DEVELOPMENT SERVICES – BUILDING

INFEASIBILITY EXEMPTION FORM: ENERGY REACH CODE

EFFECTIVE: APRIL 1, 2021

SCOPE: RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL

APPLICABLE CODES: 2019 PAMC 5485, 2019 CEC

If an applicant for a Covered Project believes that circumstances exist that makes it infeasible to meet the requirements of local Energy Reach Code, the applicant may request an exemption per the Infeasibility Exemption (PAMC 16.17.120). In applying for an exemption, the burden is on the Applicant to show infeasibility. Complete Part 1 and Part 2 of the Infeasibility Exemption form, and submit supporting documentation with the building permit application.

PART 1: PROJECT INFORMATION

Date: _____

Application #: _____

Project Address: _____

Type of Construction: New Residential New Nonresidential New Mixed-Use

Description of Work: _____

PART 2: DECLARATION OF INFEASIBILITY

Code Section(s) (list the code sections that are infeasible for project to meet):

1. Describe the circumstances that make it infeasible for the project to comply with the energy reach code.

Description of circumstances continued:

2. Describe the steps taken to achieve the maximum possible compliance with the energy reach code requirements:

3. Attach supporting documentation with this form. Supporting documentation may include but is not limited to the following: energy modeling documentation, manufacturer specs, plans etc.

Requested by:

Owner Print: _____ Owner Signature: _____

Architect or Engineer to sign below.

Architect/Engineer Print: _____

Architect/Engineer Signature: _____

Architect or Professional Engineer Wet Stamp: _____

PART 3: STAFF USE ONLY

1. Staff Findings and Recommendations:

Reviewed by:

Date: _____ Staff: _____

Infeasibility Exemption Recommended Infeasibility Exemption Not Recommended

Decision:

Infeasibility Exemption Granted Infeasibility Exemption Denied

Director of Planning and Development Services, Assistant Director, or Chief Building Official
Print: _____

Director of Planning and Development Services, Assistant Director, or Chief Building Official
Signature: _____

Date: _____