

FEEL GOOD ABOUT YOURSELF, YOUR COMPANY, AND YOUR PLANET.

Are you looking for ways to make your business more energy and water efficient? Reducing your business's energy and water consumption is not only a great way to protect the planet, but also helps you save money and gain customer loyalty.

With the new Business Energy Advisor (BEA) Program, business customers can get free hands-on assistance and generous rebates to install energy and water efficient equipment.

How can my business benefit from the Business Energy Advisor?

Property owners, managers, tenants and others can enjoy the many benefits of Business Energy Advisor, including:

- Free consultation and on-site assessments to identify energy and water efficiency options relevant to your business and facility
- Generous rebates to offset project costs
- Lower energy and water bills
- Improved health and comfort for building occupants as well as tenant retention
- Reduced carbon footprint

Here's how you qualify

- You need to be a non-residential customer* who receives utility service from City of Palo Alto Utilities (i.e., must pay commercial rates for electric and/or gas utility services)
- Your facility is smaller than 50,000 square feet
- Your facility is currently in operation

* Excludes Key Account Customers
