

YOUR HOME DIDN'T COME WITH AN INSTRUCTION MANUAL.

ARE YOU:

- Trying to identify the most efficient way to heat your water?
- Wondering how you can add air conditioning and replace your old gas furnace with an efficient, electric heat pump system?
- Looking for ways to lower your carbon footprint by going electric?

You don't have to figure it out alone.

We have knowledgeable people ready to help you out.

THE HOME EFFICIENCY GENIE is an award-winning energy and water efficiency program for Palo Alto residents. Our trusted advisors have helped hundreds of Palo Altans achieve optimal results on their projects and upgrades, and we're standing by to help you, free of charge, identify ways to increase efficiency, cut costs and improve the comfort of your home. In addition, for a $49 co-pay, we can provide a Home Electrification Readiness Assessment to give you valuable advice on how to totally switch to clean electricity in your home.
